MONTANA LIVESTOCK AG CREDIT

Montana Livestock Ag Credit, held its Annual Stockholders' Meeting in Helena, MT, May 18, 2017 celebrating 83 years in business. The lunch was well attended with shareholders traveling from various parts of the State. Directors re-elected for three year terms were Steve Lund, Wibaux and Randy Smith, Glen. Sam Obrecht, Turner was elected to replace retiring director Dale Johnson. Elected to the 2018 Nominating Committee were Craig Hereim, Martinsdale; Kevin Koss, Malta; and Jim Sitz, Dillon. Employee Allison Berg was recognized for her 15 years of service. We would like to thank Dale Johnson for his 24 years of service on the Board. His dedication is appreciated and will be missed.

Meet Sam Obrecht, our New Director. Sam, his wife Linda, and family operate Louie Petrie Ranch, a cow/calf operation near Turner. He is a graduate of Turner High School and Montana State University with a degree in Ag Business. Sam is a member and past director of North Central Stockgrowers, member of the Montana Stockgrowers, and director and past president of North Blaine Cooperative State Grazing. He has served on the local school board, church board and is a former director of Big Flat Community Development.
